A. Scott Lewis, County Attorney, presented bid openings for Milling, Paving, & Base Repair for Sections of CR-160 from CR-403 to Fox Road and Opossum Trot Road. The bids that were received are detailed in the attached listing. Commissioner Decker motioned to allow the bids to be taken under advisement by the County Engineer. Commissioner Glover seconded. Motion approved 2-0.

B. Commissioner Glover presented a request for Opioid Restricted Funds, from Ivy Tech Community College. This did come with a favorable recommendation from Dr. Yazel. Reminder to anyone in the audience that the opioid restricted funds are from a federal settlement. These are not really tax dollars, these are settlement dollars from pharmaceutical companies. Scott Lewis, County Attorney, reminded everyone that there are certain requirements they must abide by with this being a federal class action lawsuit, and that is why they have Dr. Yazel review to ensure that they comply with the requirements. Commissioner Decker motioned to approve the proposal from Ivy Tech Community College. Commissioner Glover seconded. Motion approved 2-0.

C. Scott Lewis, County Attorney, presented a Copier Lease and Maintenance Agreement for CASA/Family Recovery Court that was presented to them by Tom Lowe, the Court Administrator. This is currently in the court equipment budget to cover the cost. Commissioner Decker makes a motion to approve the lease and maintenance agreement. Commissioner Glover seconded. Motion approved 2-0.

D. Scott Lewis, County Attorney, presented a Voluntary Agency Acceptance Agreement with Cintas Rental Program for the Highway Department that would allow for us to utilize the State of Indiana pricing and will save us money. Commissioner Decker wants to thank our Highway Superintendent, Dave, for running this down and looking for ways to save money. Commissioner Decker makes a motion to approve the Volunteer Agency Acceptance Agreement with Cintas Rental Program. Commissioner Glover seconded. Motion approved 2-0.

E. Bryan Glover, Commissioner President, presented a request from Kim Hardin, Director of Charlestown Clark County Public Library, to reappoint Mark Johnson for a term of February 22, 2026 expiring February 22, 2030.
