RESOLUTION NO. 2-2006

A Resolution Rededicating Clark County Detention Facility and Designating Its Official Name Hereafter

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of Clark County ("Board") is the County Executive under I. C. 36-2-2-2 and also functions as the County legislative body under I. C. 36-1-2-9(1);

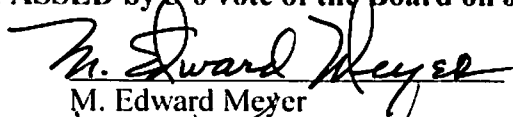

WHEREAS, the Board is authorized to make orders concerning county property under I.C. 36-2-2-20 and is further authorized to establish and maintain a county courthouse and other public offices under I.C. 36-2-2-24;

WHEREAS, on June 22, 2006, the Board officially made special recognition of the past years of services of retired Clark Superior Court No. 1 Judge Clementine B. Barthold, in official recognition of her long years of dedicated service for the establishment of programs for juvenile justice in Clark County, including construction of the first-ever juvenile detention facility in 1991. The Board now deems it appropriate to make special recognition of Judge Barthold for her public service work:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD AS FOLLOWS:

1. That each and every recital contained above is made a part of this official Resolution;
2. That effective June 22, 2006, the Clark County Juvenile Detention Facility is officially rededicated and designated, and forever named, the Clementine B. Barthold Regional Juvenile Detention Center;
3. That the County Building Authority, upon receipt of a copy of this Resolution, is requested to take such steps as are necessary to install such designated lettering at the entry of the Center on Meigs Avenue and to work with representatives of the Board for the installation of an official plaque memorializing this rededication.

THIS RESOLUTION PASSED by 2-0 vote of the Board on June 22, 2006;

M. Edward Meyer

Vicky Kent-Haire
